TWO MORE ARE BITTEN BY DOGS

Mad Dog Scare Spreads. Several Dogs Killed. Two Residents of the Vicinity of Round Top are Bitten. Dog Came that Way.

Two more people have been bitten by dogs along the route which the mad dog of ten days ago followed. They are Robert Felix, the eighteen year old son of James Felix, and Miss Ida Weikert, the eighteen year old daughter of David Weikert, both of near Round Top. The people were bitten by their own dogs. The Weikert dog has been killed and the other animal has been penned up and will be closely watched.

Both were bitten on Sunday evening. The Felix boy was playing with his small pet dog when it snapped at him and bit him in the hand. He came to town on Monday and Dr. Hartman cauterized the wound. The boy suffered considerably from the wound.

Miss Rider was also playing with her pet dog and later the animal started to growl and snapped her. The wound did not cause the blood to flow and no steps were taken to prevent any trouble from resulting.

As the dog which bit the three Gettysburg people ten days ago was in the vicinity of Round Top before coming to this place considerable apprehension is felt in that neighborhood.

The route of the dog ten days ago has been discovered by Burgess Holtzworth after running down a number of false reports. The dog was seen at Harney where it showed signs of being mad. Near that town Joseph Kelly tried to kill it with a pitchfork but was unsuccessful. Charles Horner shot at the dog but missed it and John Sharretts kicked at it as the dog passed him in a narrow path.

The rabid animal followed the Taneytown road for some distance and when going past Round Top is said to have bitten the dog of David Weikert. This dog started to act in a peculiar manner on Saturday of last week and after biting the daughter on Sunday it was thought best to keep watch on it. On Monday it was seen that something was wrong and the dog was killed. A dog belonging to Emory Rosensteel, also of Round Top was killed this morning. From Round Top the animal came on to Gettysburg with the result which is known.

LEG BROKEN IN ACCIDENT

Ugly Driving Accident in Bonneauville Bridge Results in Injury to Boy, Bruises to Three Others and Demolished Sleigh.

Four people were thrown from vehicles, a small boy had his leg broken, a sleigh was demolished and a two horse team ran away in an ugly driving accident which happened early Monday evening in the Bonneauville bridge East of town. The boy who had his leg broken was the four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Redding who reside on the Smith farm on the Bonneauville road a short distance from town.

Mrs. Redding and the boy were driving in a sleigh through the bridge when John Rinehart and another man, whose name we have been unable to learn, came in from behind them in a large sled drawn by two horses. The noise of the runners of the second sled on the floor frightened Mr. Rinehart's horses and they started to plunge and run, finally jumping up against the Redding sleigh and upsetting both vehicles, the sleigh being completely demolished.

The men escaped with few bruises but the Redding boy had his leg broken at the thigh. His mother was also considerably bruised. The boy was taken home and Dr. Hartman assisted by Dr. Dalbey reduced the fracture.

The Redding horse stood still but those of Mr. Rinehart went on through a hedge and several other fences before they were caught.

After suffering for the past eight years from gangrene in the feet, Jacob Knisely, Sr., died Saturday morning at 2 o'clock at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. E. K. Heiges, near York Springs. He was seventy six years old.

Mr. Knisely contracted gangrene in his right foot and to prevent the poison from inoculating his entire system, had the foot amputated at the ankle eight years ago. The operation was performed too late and several years ago the left foot became infected. The condition of the man steadily grew worse and death resulted.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Heiges and Mrs. W. J. Dick, of Mount Top. Three sisters also survive, Mrs. Eliza Krug, of this place; Mrs. William Straley and Miss Katie Knisely, both of Franklintown.

IN THE WEST END

The lure of hidden wealth in the mountains near Charman, is again at work.

Six prosperous looking gentlemen from the vicinity of Allentown, visited that section Saturday. Their destination, said one of them, was the copper mine, near this city. They spent several hours in looking around cracking jokes in English and German with equal facility and gusto, and hearing the elements as though the ground were strewn with roses instead of snow. All look as though they had fat wallets and fine appetites, and three of them were of the build of Hercules.

The visitors were:—A. H. Wickert, and Ed. Marsh, Allentown, Pa.; S. H. Beens, Katellon, Pa.; E. C. Tatus, Haledorf, Pa.; Irwin S. Uhler Bangor, Pa.; and A. T. Beers, Bath, Pa.

ALONG THE KENNEBEC

"Along the Kennebec," a New England comedy now in its fourth successful season, and carrying a fine band will be produced at Walter Theatre tonight. The play is moulded along the same idea as "The Old Homestead," "Shore Acres" and "York State Folks," and deals entirely with country life. Plays of this nature are deservedly popular, inasmuch as they are clean and wholesome and leave a good taste in the mouth. They usually illustrate some good moral principle without descending to the oftentimes morbid sensationalism of the melodrama or the soul harrowing incidents of the problem play. "Along the Kennebec" is said to have met with great favor wherever produced, and much interest will be taken in the presentation of the play in this city. All special scenery is carried for the production.

WANTED: fruit men of Pennsylvania and New York to bid on furnishing me with fruit trees to stock two hundred acres in the apple belt. One farm is at McKnightstown Station and the other at Heintzelman's Station on Western Maryland Railroad. Address W. S. Dutta.

POSTPONED FOR YEAR

The Western Maryland Railroad Company, it is stated, has about decided not to proceed with the extensive improvements proposed for Pen Mar this season, as the winter season is so far advanced that it would be almost impossible to have them completed before the rush on the mountain begins.

The old dancing pavilion, however, will be enlarged and improved. A new station may be built, but, it is stated, that has not yet been definitely decided upon.

The Railway Company had intended to erect a new pavilion opposite the old pavilion, but the enterprise would require a vast amount of time with the risk of delays in securing material and labor that might leave it incomplete all summer.

THE PROPER COURSE

Information of Priceless Value to Every Gettysburg Citizen.

How to act in an emergency is knowledge of inestimable worth, and this is particularly true of the diseases and ills of the human body. If you suffer with backache, urinary disorders, or any form of kidney trouble, the advice contained in the following statement will add a valuable asset to your store of knowledge. What could be more convincing proof of the efficiency of Doan's Kidney Pills than the statement of Gettysburg citizens who have been permanently cured?

Mrs. Elizabeth Beiter, 1 Steinwehr Ave., Gettysburg, Pa., says: "I am just as willing to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills today as I was two years ago, when I publicly told of my experience with them. I was afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble and all my efforts for relief were unavailing. The kidney secretions passed irregularly and caused much distress. Pains often shot across my body and my health was all run down. Hearing so much about Doan's Kidney Pills, I was led to get a box at the People's Drug Store and give them a trial. They cured me and I have since enjoyed good health."

LAND FRAUD JURY DISAGREES

Jury Disagrees a Second Time Upon Charges Against Binger Hermann. Portland, Ore., Feb. 15.—The jury in the case of Binger Hermann, charged with land frauds, announced a disagreement and was discharged.

Binger Hermann was formerly a representative in congress from Oregon and commissioner of the general land office.

He is a Maryland man by birth, but has lived in Oregon since 1843. He is familiar with the land laws and their effect on western interests, and took an active interest in such matters while in congress. He served in the Oregon legislature and as receiver of public moneys in the land office at Roseburg, Ore., prior to his election to congress. He was a member of the house with President McKinley, and was one of the leading members of the rivers and harbors committee.

In 1907 Hermann was accused of conspiracy in connection with the Oregon land frauds. The trial resulted in a disagreement and was ordered held a second time, with the result of an other disagreement.

Woman Kills Herself in Trough. Huntington, Pa., Feb. 15.—Mrs. William Shafer, of Mount Union, committed suicide by tying two flat irons to her neck and lying down lengthwise in a watering trough which contained but six inches of water. Worry over the continued illness of her father and mother and domestic troubles on her own are supposed to have induced her to take her life. She was thirty-seven years old.

"Talked to Death" Is Woman's Epitaph. Carlyle, Ill., Feb. 15.—Thomas Philip's wife, an invalid, was offered many suggestions on how to get well, but died. Her husband put up a tombstone with this epitaph: "Alice Philip, born April 10, 1861; died Nov. 15, 1909. Talked to death by friends."

Bank Robbers Travel in Auto. Dodge City, Kan., Feb. 15.—The State bank of Ford, twenty miles east of Dodge City, was robbed of $375. The robbers came in from the south in a motor car. Four charges of nitroglycerine were used in wrecking the big fireproof safe and steel chest.

Foreign Hair Critics.

Shrewd foreign observers have remarked that if the American woman of middle age would spend a fraction as much money on her hair as she does on her boots and hosiery she would be the most ravishing creature in the world. In France and England the first gray hair is a tragedy, and to avert this tragedy as long as possible is a matter of vital and absorbing moment. When attacked with prompt action, however, this tragic arm may be utterly routed or its onslaught at least postponed. Nearly all druggists nowadays carry in stock or can promptly get HAY'S HAIR HEALTH, which is the recognized antidote for premature gray hair. It is well to avoid unknown and untested remedies claiming to be as good as HAY'S HAIR HEALTH. Many of these preparations are distinctly harmful, and their only excuse for being so is to trade on the twenty years' reputation and good-will that HAY'S HAIR HEALTH has earned by reason of its remarkable efficiency when applied in time. Costs only 50c, or a dollar for a bottle, druggists or from the manufacturer, Milo Hay Specialties Co., Newark, N. J., U. S. A.

HIS HEAD CUT OFF

Boy Meets Death in Jump From a Moving Train. Trenton, N. J., Feb. 15.—Walter Connors, nine years old, son of Patrolman Charles Connors, was decapitated while endeavoring to leap from a rapidly moving freight train in South Trenton. With a companion about the same age he was returning from Morrisville, Pa., where the lads desired to skate on a small pond. The freight was moving slowly when they boarded it, but greatly increased its speed while crossing the new Pennsylvania Railroad company's bridge across the Delaware river. Young Connors jumped from the train as it was passing his home. His parents were the first to reach the side of the mangled body. The unfortunate boy's companion has not been located. It is believed that he was carried through to New York.

OLD WOMAN RAN BABY FARM

Gave Infants Dope and One Is in a Dying Condition. Indianapolis, Feb. 15.—Mrs. Mary Woodford, old and infirm, was arrested for running a baby farm, and it was shown that she had given five infants dope of some kind and one is now in a dying condition. One of the women who helped care for the babies when taken from the farm said that it was necessary to give them hot baths in order to rouse them from the stupor they were in as a result of drugs administered by Mrs. Woodford.

UNDREAMED WEALTH IN ALASKA FIND

Geological Survey Discloses Gold of Great Value.

Washington, Feb. 15.—Alaska, which Secretary Ballinger has frequently said is America's prize package, may be a greater prize than the man has even yet dreamed. Recent investigations in the Innoko district, the central Kuskokwim valley and the new Haiditarod district, now partially finished by the United States geological survey, disclose new placer gold districts which promise very heavy returns.

The little territory bought from Russia for $7,000,000 in 1867 has to the present time paid $160,000,000 in gold alone since 1880, when placer mining there began, and what the resources of its copper, coal and other minerals will be is beyond estimation.

The discovery by agents of the survey of placers on the small streams in areas which are drained into the lower Yukon or the lower Kuskokwim prove that the formations of the upper Yukon belts extend much farther to the southwest than had generally been supposed, and that they bear gold at many scattered localities throughout their extent.

The Innoko district has attracted some attention already and other areas are now being explored with prospects of large results.

Sufficient prospecting has been done there to indicate the presence of a pay stream from fifty to seventy feet wide with gold uniformly distributed.

EXAMS FOR MINERS

Loss of Jobs May Follow in Anthracite Region.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Feb. 15.—From 40 to 50 per cent of the miners in the anthracite mines of Luzerne county will lose their places by the campaign of elimination started by the miners' examining board. Every miner will be compelled to undergo the state examination to show whether he is or is not so familiar with mining conditions that he is a competent miner. As the law provides that each one examined must be able to speak and read English, it is estimated that many of the foreign-born miners will lose their places. Coal companies and mine inspectors estimate that the elimination of incompetents will reduce the number of mining accidents 50 per cent.

Husband Died of Grief.

BANKERS MAKE NO DEFENSE

Indicted Pittsburg Men Will Not Fight.

MAX LESLIE'S TRIAL ON

Lawyers of Politician Fail in Attempt to Obtain Delay—Bribery Story Told on the Witness Stand.

Pittsburg, Feb. 15.—When the criminal case was called for trial Bankers E. H. Jennings and F. A. Griffin entered pleas of nolo contendere to the charge of conspiracy to bribe. In other words, the men, by this plea, say that they have no defense to make. Max G. Leslie was charged jointly with the same offense with Jennings and Griffin, but Leslie decided to fight his battle to the bitter end.

With the pleas of the two bankers entered, Leslie was placed on trial to answer to the charge of perjury, and the selection of a jury was begun. Leslie's counsel, Rody P. Marshall and Walter L. Yon, endeavored to have the case put off on technical grounds, but Judge Evans ordered the trial to proceed.

The charge on which Leslie is being tried grows out of certain statements which he made before the grand jury of Allegheny county last March, when that tribunal held an inquisition for the purpose of ascertaining if there were any grounds for certain alleged accusations which were being discussed publicly. L. W. Mendenhall, a stenographer, took the testimony of the grand jury witnesses and, according to Mendenhall's evidence, Leslie testified before the grand jury that he never had received any package from any one identified with the Columbia National bank, of which Griffin was the former cashier and vice president, and of which Jennings is the president.

Griffin was called, and testified that Leslie received $2500 on June 2, 1908, and $22,500 on June 6, of the same year, and that the latter amount was wrapped in brown paper and that Leslie carried it out of the bank.

The claim of the commonwealth is that Leslie perjured himself when he gave his statements before the grand jury.

In addition to the charge of perjury against Leslie and the joint charge of conspiracy with the defendants who pleaded "no defense," Leslie also is charged separately with conspiracy and a misdemeanor.

Mendenhall, the first witness, told the exact story as alleged by the prosecution, adding the fact that Leslie had appeared before the grand jury on March 18 of last year. This proves beyond all doubt that this graft evidence has been in the hands of District Attorney Blakeley for nearly a year.

Following the testimony of Mendenhall, Griffin took the witness stand and told of how, on June 2, 1908, he had paid Leslie $2500, the first instalment of the bribery money, and the balance of $22,500 on June 6, four days later. He disputed the testimony of Leslie before the grand jury in every manner, giving Leslie the lie direct.

Griffin sprung a sensation when he told how he, Jennings and Leslie had made an arrangement to account for the money going out of the bank, by declaring it had been lent to T. N. Barnsdall, the oil man. National Bank Examiner Nesbitt ruined this plan by discovering the payment before the alleged conspirators had time to get the permission of Barnsdall to use his name.

When questioned by Nesbitt, according to Griffin, President Jennings sent for Leslie. The latter denied knowing anything of the money, and the confessions of Griffin and Jennings followed immediately.

Sample Helps Frail Women

So many women are dragging out weary lives just because their digestive organs are weak. The result is poor circulation, nervousness and the verge of invalidism. It is often very unnecessary and the woman's own fault.

The first thing to do is to look to the welfare of your bowels. There the trouble usually lies. All physicians know that a large percentage of women are habitually constipated, and from this results indigestion, piles, weariness, etc., that women constantly complain of. But there is no use taking "female remedies" and things of that kind until you have regular and your bowels moving. You will find that when the bowels move regularly once or twice a day all your petty ills will disappear. Take a good, mild laxative tonic like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for awhile and you will find yourself rapidly getting better and feeling well. You will regulate themselves and work at stated times, and then your headaches and dizziness will disappear. Don't take strong cathartic pills or salts, but just such a mild and pleasant-tasting remedy as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

You can obtain a bottle of your druggist for fifty cents or one dollar, and either size may be enough to permanently cure you. Thousands of women keep it regularly in the house and will no longer be without it, as it cures them and can be used with safety by every member of the family, down to the youngest child, but if you have never used it take the advice of Mrs. Earl S. Cox, 409 Twenty-fifth street, Moline, Ill., and Mrs. Ellen Dungan, Muncie, Ind., and send to Dr. Caldwell for a free trial bottle, as they did, and learn for yourself what it will do in your own case. That it will cure you, as it did them, there is no doubt.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card and otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R. 521 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

SAY ADAMS GIRL WAS SLAIN

Murder Charge Made Against William Seyler.

SHE WAS KILLED BY BLOW

Atlantic City Detectives on Trail of Married Man Whom They Accuse of Murder on Young's Pier—General Alarm Sent Out.

Atlantic City, Feb. 15.—Chief of Detectives Whalen swore out a warrant for the arrest of William Seyler on the charge of murdering Jane Adams, whose body was found in the surf. County Physician Lewis Souder has supplied the detective with the result of the post mortem and his expert opinion that the girl was killed, either by a blow or a fall, before she was thrown or fell into the sea from the end of Young's pier.

Chief Whalen is convinced that Seyler can clear up the mystery of the girl's death.

"His movements after he learned that a warrant had been issued for him are suspicious," said Whalen, "and now that he knows that he is accused of being implicated in the tragedy, his failure to come forward is sufficient reason for the police to connect him with the death of the girl. We have also sent out a request for the arrest of his brother, Arvis, who was with him the night the girl was last seen alive. Arvis has also disappeared."

General Alarm Sent Out.

In the alarm sent broadcast for the apprehension of William Seyler, the charge of murder is made. Owing to the knowledge that Seyler and his brother had but little funds to carry them very far, the search is being pressed closely in all directions within a short radius of the resort. Egg Harbor, twenty miles from Atlantic City, it was learned, was their first stopping place, when they left the city on Saturday. William Seyler, the fugitive, informing his young wife that he was going to a hotel in Chelsea to get a position as engineer. Since then no trace of either of the brothers has been found.

Deserted and without funds, Mrs. Seyler, who is only nineteen years old, is one of the pitiful objects in the tragic story. Confident that her husband could not be guilty of the crime of which the police accuse him, she retains confidence in his innocence and has unshaken faith that he will return and clear himself of the suspicion which now hangs over him.

Investigations by the detectives concerning Seyler's habits revealed the fact that he posed as and was considered as something of a dandy in his own class. He frequently attended the entertainments on the piers and the cheap places of amusement.

May Have Been a Quarrel.

Alice Adams, who was with her sister on the fatal night, repeated her declaration that she asked her elder sister to return home when she started, but that her sister's companion, Seyler, insisted that she should remain, but that she had observed that they seemed to be in animated conversation at different times, and perhaps were quarreling. While she had intended to ascertain the reason for the apparent argument, her sister never returned.

"No," she sobbed, "I was not in the habit of arranging meetings between William and my sister, nor did I keep anything secret from my parents, who did not like the idea of having her seen in the company of a married man."

"There was no one who heard a scream or a cry the night the girl is believed to have fallen from the pier into the breakers," said one of the pier officials. "We have made a thorough investigation and know that while the end of the pier was dimly lighted there were others on the outer end of the structure, but how near to Seyler and his companion, of course, we do not know. We know that the girl jumped, fell or was thrown from the pier, but if she had made an outcry such as would have been made unless she was felled with a blow, some one would have heard it."

SENSATION AT BALLINGER PROBE

Glavis Accused of Hiding Land Office Documents.

CALLS IT A "FRAME-UP"

It is Claimed Agents Broke Open His Private Box at Seattle and Found Them—Faces Counsel For Secretary of Interior.

Washington, Feb. 15.—It is claimed that a box containing some private papers belonging to Louis R. Glavis was broken open by land office agents in the postoffice building at Seattle, Wash. They found, so it is alleged, copies of a number of important letters and telegrams that were missing from the official files of the office which Glavis had then turned over to his successor.

This fact came out in the course of the Ballinger-Pinchot inquiry and created a sensation. Glavis denied absolutely that he ever had the letters after he had delivered his office and its belongings to his successor, A. C. Christensen. He promptly denounced the episode in Seattle as a "frame-up."

Several of the letters were in a list published by Collier's Weekly last fall in one of the attacks made by that newspaper on Secretary Ballinger. When the investigation by the joint committee of congress begun, Louis D. Brandeis, attorney for Glavis, requested the committee to call for a number of letters and documents, and this list included most of those which were in dispute. John J. Vertrees, of Nashville, Tenn., attorney for Secretary Ballinger, who conducted the cross-examination of Glavis, explained to the joint committee that Secretary Ballinger called on the chief of the field agents at Seattle to furnish certain letters. The first reply to the request was that the documents could not be found. But they were received Monday by the secretary of the interior from Seattle, accompanied by an explanation from Glavis' successor in which it was said that they were recovered from the box of personal belongings.

Glavis Says It's a "Frame-Up."

"It is a frame-up," exclaimed Glavis. "It makes me indignant for any one to assume that I would have been foolish enough to have put those letters in a box and left them where they would have been accessible to the very men who are trying to make a case against me. It makes me indignant to think that subordinates of the secretary of the interior would stoop to such methods in order to serve Mr. Ballinger."

Glavis denied ever having placed the letters in the box. He told the committee that he believed that the agent of the land office had taken them from the office files and placed them there for the purpose of making it appear that he had abstracted them from the files and had refused to give them up.

Attorney Vertrees proposed to submit the letters and the accompanying explanation from A. C. Christensen, the special agent in charge at Seattle. But a vigorous objection was made.

Before this question had been disposed of Representative James, of Kentucky, voiced his indignation at the manner in which the letters had appeared in the committee room. Attorney Brandeis then made a spirited protest against the way in which Secretary Ballinger had turned over to his attorney for submission to the committee as evidence letters that the committee had called for under instructions as to their custody.

Glavis took the stand at the opening of the hearing. Mr. Vertrees drew from the witness that the Cunningham claimants were the first to pay up on their claims and that in numerical order they were entitled to first consideration in any legislation.

No Direct Accusations.

Referring to Glavis' report to the president, a magazine article by him and his testimony before this committee, Mr. Vertrees asked if he had made any direct accusations.

Glavis said he had intentionally refrained from making any charges; he presented the facts to let the people draw their own inferences.

Asked what he thought the facts showed, witness replied that "the land department was not in safe hands and that the people's interests were not being protected in the Alaska cases."

Glavis said flatly that he thought the facts established official misconduct on the part of Ballinger and Dennett.

Called on to explain why then he made no charge of corruption, he said: "If I had thought the facts warranted a charge of corruptness I would have gone to the grand jury instead of to the president."

Glavis said he did not believe there were any corrupt motives on the part of Ballinger or Dennett, but their not protecting the people was intentional.

Pressed further, witness said perhaps he and Mr. Vertrees didn't have the same view of the meaning of "corrupt." "I think," he added, "when a man acts corruptly he acts criminally. There are no charges of criminality here."
